NAMES.

A. ابل

G. Μυρσινη.

L. Myrtus.

I. Myrto.

G. Mirten Baum.

F. Myrte.

S. Arayhan.

D. Myrtus.

THE GREAT & SMALL MYRTLE TREE.

PLACE.

Spain Italy and Egypt, with us in Gardens.

DESCRIPTION.

The Plant has a Fibrous Root, the Wood Hard and with a Dark brown Bark, but the Young Shoots are of Brown, as are the Stalks of the Flowers and Leaves, whi Shooting are of a fine light Green, and at full growth Smooth and bright. The Cup 1. is on the Top of the light Green, cut in five equal Parts. The Flowers 2. ha Six Leaves, white in the inside, on the Outside sometim turn. On the seed Vessel or Berry, which is at the bot is a white Crooked Style 3. surrounded with abunda Topt with Summits of a pale Yellow. The Fruit or see divided into several Cells 7. containing many Seeds 8. Shell, inclosing a white kernel. The Calix 9 remains on Asterism denotes parts magnified.

VIRTUES.

They are Used for drying and Binding, inwardly an

T. Sheldrake delin.